CLASSIFIED APPLICATION INSTRUCTIONS

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your interest in the Evergreen School District.

Because of the number of applications being processed by this office, it will not be possible to acknowledge receipt of each application or to arrange interviews for all applicants. However, we are pleased to have your application on file and it will be reviewed when there are positions open for which you applied.

To be considered for a position, please complete the following:

1. File a complete application.
2. File a resume and/or statement of qualifications.
3. File any supporting material which would help evaluate your skills and qualifications.
Letters of recommendation from current or former supervisors are encouraged.

Upon completion of the above:

1. Your application file will be reviewed with regard to your stated experience, skills and abilities.
2. Your file will be kept in the Human Resources Department for review by our district supervisors and or principals as openings occur for the current year.
3. Interviews will be arranged with those applicants whose file states that they have the background, skills and abilities necessary.

Thank you again for your interest in our District and be assured that your application file will be given every consideration for position for which you apply.

Carole Schmitt
Director of Human Resources
